Having in mind the relocating of the ARS from Munich to Berchtesgaden, I asked if HULSE would arrange an interview for me with the Post Commander at Berchtesgaden, sometime in the next month or so, so that I could discuss cover arrangements with him. I had already discussed this matter with Col. MACDONALD and Col. HULSE with Major RHODEY's assistance, was familiar with the matter. He agreed and asked that he be given a few days notice.
